THE COURTS.

A CIVIL RIGHTS CASE. A rather important case in regard to the civil rights of colored persons is now on trial before Judge Daly in the Common Pleas. Harriet L. Jacobs and her daughter, the former showing plain evidence of negro blood, but the latter not darker than many brunettes, and with no marked Ethicator observations, mounted and with no marked Ethiopian characteristics, proceed first-class cabin passage tickets by the steamer Leo from and with he marked Ethiopian each first-class cabin passage tickets by the steamer Lee from Savannah to New York in July, 1866. They went to their berths on board the steamer, but were then ejected, and directed to go in another part of the yessel or leave it. The plaintiffs say that they were called opprobrious epithets and rather barship treated; that they were ordered the see and rather barship treated; that they were ordered the go on the steerage or on the deck; that when taking to go on the steerage or on the deck; that when taking the passage they informed the agent of their color; that their passage they informed an another vessel; they nak damages for their detention.

The agent who sold the tickets denied that he mad used or indeed had ever used the epithets ascribed to him by the plaintiffs; he stated that there were three classes of passage on these vessels; can the first cablin, one the deck or steerage, where passengers were only sheltered, but had heither food or bedding provided for them, and a third intermediate, where state rooms were treering but the cablin physicage were not allowed; he one the deck or steering, where passengers were only sheltered, but had herher food or bedding provided for them, and a third intermediate, where state rooms were provided, but the cabin privileges were not allowed; he thought the steeping arrangements were superfor even to those for the first cabin. He admitted, however, that unless the occupante of these state rooms were the servants of first cabin passengers they were not admitted to the cabin, and had no place to sit in. He was to this and the still lower class that negroes were by the rules of the Company confined. The witness doubted whether the plaintims over went by first class to New York, as there was a meeting and a general understanding among the agents not to permit negroes, except as servants, to go into the cabins. The passengers in this case, he testified, protected and rused objections, and the Commandant of the post at Savannah recommended and approved his course. There was a regulation of the Company in necerdance with a custom of the post of Savannah, excluding negroes from the first cabin except as above stated. The plaintiffs, he testified, were offered back their passage money. There was no choice as a Savannah, though there was choicar at Tybee Island at the month of the river. The real question in the case was ruised in objecting to all testimony as to custom, on the ground that no custom could be valid which was opposed to a principle of law, such as the daty of common carriers, or which denied a legal right obtained without fraud, such as in this case the plaintiffs had porchased. The witness, having important business engagements in Entimate to-thy, the Court took the testimony, reserving the question of hereafter striking it out till after further argument.

Judge Daly himself was subpensed to attend before a Legislative Committee at 3 o'clock, and, with the consent of the lawyers, withdrew, leaving them to continue the cross-examination of the agent.

In the course of the cross-examination, ex-Gen, Barlow inquired of the agent whether he had not been a slave-holder, to which he answered he had.

Mr. Barlow then asked him whether he thought negrors were entitled to equal rights.

A juryman named Casey rather angrily interrupted that this was a matter on which every man had his own opinion.

On Mr. Barlow's repeating the question, the juryman again interrupted, telling Mr. Barlow he was hurting his case, delaying the jury, and inquiring into matters having no relation to it.

On Mr. Barlow's again repeating the question, the witness declined to answer.

Quite probably this will to-day be made a ground of withdrawing a juror, and unpanneling a new jury to try

THE FINALE OF THE EXPRESS LITIGATION-AN

The case of Harris agt. The Consolidated or American Merchants' Union Express Company and others came on yesterday before Judge Cardozo, the motions being for an injunction, a receiver, &c. John E. Burrill, Clarence A. Seward, and Judge Strong, for the plaintiff, Judge Comstock, Porter, and Van Vorst, and Messrs. Sewell and Pierce for the defendants. After the papers were read and the case opened on the part of the plaintiff, Judge Porter, for the defendants, read the following affidavit made by the plaintiff himself; upon the reading of which the Court said that under the facts disclosed there seemed to be to ground for the motions to stand upon, but on request of Messrs. Burrill & Co. time was given them for consideration until Friday, the 12th inst.:

THE MANHATTAN CLUB GAMBLING CASE Judge Barrett made a decision in this case resterday. Benjamin Hart had brought suit against E. L. Corlies for the sum of $1,387 won by him at "poker." The case came up on a motion by the defendant to vacate judgment, on the ground of irregularity. The defendant's time to answer had expired, and he obtained from the Court permission to extend the time, and served his order and an affidavit stating why the extension should be granted, but served no copy of his affidavit of merits with said order. On that, is days afterward, the plaintiff with said order, and the served no copy of his affidavit of merits before the grant without giving may notice of taxation of costs. Corlies, on obtaining the order, had done so or an affidavit of merits. Indge Barrett in his decision says:

"The plaintiff has just kept rights the law; but such reaction mays:

"The plaintiff has just kept rights the law; but such reaction may be discounteranced. The fainter to return the order extending the time to answer, or to notify the decodast that it was disregarded; its retention for full 12 days; and then the sudden entry of judgment, without noticing the costs for adjustment, all indicate an intent to take an undue and oppressive advantage of what was evidently well known to be a more overlaigh, and oils, too, of the most triting description. The disapprehation of the Court will be practically expressed and the melessness of oneh practice directly felt, by opening the judgment without imposing the unant terms."

The defendant's motion was granted.

The defendant's motion was granted.

THE OESCENE PUBLICATION CASE.

The U. S. agt. Calvin Willis.—This case, previously reported, in which the defendant, Calvin Willis, who did business under a fictitious firm name at No. 32 Johnst., is charged with mailing obscene publications, etc., came on yesterday, pursuant to adjournment. Garret Van Dean, Postmaster at Ridgewood, N. J., called by the Government, testified that a letter shown him, containing obscene pictures and a peculiar circular, came to his post-office from New-York, and was held by him for Mr. James Gaylor, special agent of the Post-Office Department; that the letter was addressed to a factitions name, and that he saw Mr. Gaylor open it and take out the obscene pictures and circular. This letter was sent from defendant's office, and was in reply to an order mailed by Mr. Gaylor, for the purpose of obtaining legal proof against the defendant.

Owing to the absence of the principal counsel for defendant, a further hearing was postponed to Wednesday morning. THE OBSCENE PUBLICATION CASE,

The Luckey Bounty Fraud case, previously reported, and in which defendant is charged with defrauding James Brady and William Rassan out of bounty money, came up before Commissioner Osbora yesterday, pursuant to adjournment, but was further postponed to the 16th inst., owing to certain papers in the case not having arrived from Washington.

CRIMINAL At the Jefferson Market Police Court, yester-

At the Tombs Police Court yesterday, before Justice Hogan, John Sweeney was brought up on a charge of theft. Patrick Greeley of No. 229 Moitst, made oath that on Studay night, while passing through Mottest, he was met by the accused, who stratched the watch of the complainant from his vest packet and made off. He was followed and arrested by efficer Moran. In his defense Sweeney declared he was drunk at the time he stole the watch, and that he had intended to return it. He was committed to the Tombs... For having in his possession a firkin of butter, valued at $45, which had been stole from in front of the store of Thomas Hart, No. 33 Washington-st., Edward Johnson was yesterday committed to the Tombs.

The March term of the Kings County Court The March term of the Kings County Court of Oyer and Terminer was opened yesterday moraling, before Judge Gilbert and Associate Justices Hoyt and Voorbies, when the following gentlemen were impanneled as the Grand Jury: A. A. Low, Poreman: John Loughlin, George T. Barnard, Garrot Baldwin, William Wise. Charles H. Brown, Stephen R. Cox, Sylvester Ross, David Harris, J. W. Frothingham, R. Gould, Jr., Jesse M. Folk, Theodore C. Wallace, Robert McCoy, and Anson Ferguson. The Grand Jury were instructed as to their duties, when they retired for deliberation. The Circuit Court was then opened by Judge Gilbert. The calendar contains 335 cases. After the panel of Petit Jurors had been called, the day calendar was taken up, but as none of the coursel were ready to proceed, the Court adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

In the Court of General Sessions, before

In the Court of General Sessions, before Judge Bedford, yesterday, there were three trials, resulting in two convictions and one acquittal. Two pleas of gulity were received, two sentences pronounced, and in two cases judgment was postponed. One prisoner was discharged. Assistant District Altorney Hutchings and Second Assistant District Attorney Hutchings and Second Assistant District Attorney Tweed appeared for the people.

... Patrick Kerrigan was arraigned for homicide, and pleaded not guilty. The clreumstances, in brief, were that on the 20th of October, Eliza Tracy, a paramour of the prisoner, was with him in a room at No. 14 Mulberryst, in a condition of beasily intoxication. The woman was found in the room with her clothes on fire, and her death resulted from the fujuries she received. There was no proof that the prisoner had mything to do with the fire, and he was discharged by Judge Bedford. The Judge said he had no doubt the prisoner was morally guilty of the crime, but he escaped for want of legal evidence. Wm. H. Chambers pleaded guilty to a charge of obtaining goods muder false pretances, and was brought up for sentence. He had formerly been employed by. The Tribune Association, and was detected making false collections of bills due that establishment. He had collected from Messrs. Lorillard & Co., No. 18 Chambers-st., a bill of $31.25, by representing himself as a clork in The Tribune Association. A letter was read from Mr. Samuel Sinclair, Publisher of The Tribune, asking that sentence he suspended, as he thought the prisoner ponitori, and wished to give him a chance to reform. Judge Bedford snapended sentence, and warned the prisoner to behave in the future. Just as Chambers was leaving the court room, Detectives Farley and Eustace re-arrested him on a charge of frand. It is alleged that, by means of worthless checks, he had procured from Messrs. James Griffith of Chambers-st., and J. B. Heuroco for 200 Broadway, sums amounting in the negregate to between $500 and $600. He was locked up at Polic In the Court of General Sessions, before

XLIST CONGRESS-1ST SESSION.

SENATE ... WASHINGTON, March 8, 1869. On motion of Mr. MORTON (Rep., Ind.) the reading of the journal was dispensed with. A PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

Mr. HOWE (Rep., Wis.) rose to a personal explanation, and then contradicted the statement which appeared in The New-York World of Saturday, that in the exacutive session for the consideration of the Cabinet nominations. (Mr. Howe), bad asked "who is Borie " and on being told he was a Philadelphian, had added resignedly, well let him pass, the League Island job will, of course, well let him pass, the League island job win, or course, be all the safer." The fact was that he had not said this or anything else on that occasion, and although he ought, orrhaps, to feel grateful for the kindness of newspaper correspondents in occasionally tinventing speeches for him, he could not be thankful for silly or insune ones like these, because he could make enough of such himself.

[Laughter].

Mr. CAMERON (Rep., Pa.) also denied that he had made the remarks attributed to him in the same paper. He eulogized Mr. Borie, and said he (Cameron) was so used to being unjustly treated by the newspapers that he was not surprised at anything they said about him, except when they happened inadvertently to praise him.

THE FENSION TO MRS. LINCOLN.

Mr. SUMNER (Rep., Mass.) moved to proceed to the consideration of the bill grauting a pension of 25,000 annually to Mrs. Lincoln, widow of the late President.

Mr. EDMUNDS (Rep., Vt.) thought the matter should go to a Committee; if Mrs. Lucoln was in affluence as he had heard stated, then it would be manifestly unjust to single her out for a pension to the exclusion of other equally deserving and more needy wklows; but if, on the contrary, she was in a destitute condition and should have a pension, that fact could be best ascertained by a Committee. He therefore moved te refer it to the Committee on Pensions.

Committee. He therefore moved to text mittee on Pensions.

Mr. SUMNER opposed the motion. He had no reason to suppose that the Pension Committee would deal with the bill more wisely than its predecessor had done, and he saw nothing in the proposition that needed investigation by a committee. He hoped, therefore, that the bill would be voted upon without reference and without departs.

Mr. TIPTON insisted on the bill being sent to the Com-mittee on Pensions for investigation.

The motion to refer was then carried by a vote of 31

GENERAL NOTES.

Six of the London theaters are managed by Rosa Bonheur has recently declined a Russian decoration.

How should the limbs of the law be clothed? [London Judy.

In breaches of promise. The Italian Embassador at Paris lost $30,000 ecently in one night's gambling. A pension of $500 a year has been given to Mrs. S. C. Hall, the Irish authoress. A Paris physician recommends seven vapor baths as a remedy for hydrophobia.

A swindler in Liverpool has been making a living by selling "sham life-preservers."

The Navy of the Sandwich Islands, it is said, consists of two fishing smacks and a raft.

The St. Louis authorities are making an extensive raid upon the swindling lottery schemes in that city. A new dramatic idea in Parls is a lecture, critical and explanatory, preceding the performance of a tragedy. Fourteen additional licenses for velocipede rinks were granted by the Boston Board of Aldermen hat week. In one window of Trinity Church, New-Ha-en, there are 10,000 pieces of stained glass, each prepared and out separately. Queen Victoria wears her hair as she did 25 rears ago. Conflures, waterfalls, chignons, curls, and back hair are naught to her. The latest fashion for gentlemen's evening dress at Paris is blue coats with gilt buttons, and white satin waistcoats and cravats.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says that from Johnson's to uching allusion to Sylla, it is evident he is a Sylla-bub, whi pped and frothy; The following typographical error shows the was importance of the comma. At a banquet this toast was giren; "Woman-without her man, is a brute." The small bench at Passy, on which Rossini used to seat himself during his solitary morning promeundes, has been nearly whittled away by relichunters. The Columbus (Ohio) Journal pointedly remarks that "every cord of wood given to the poor here will be so much fuel saved from use in the other world." A diligent reader of Scripture has discovered that the velocipede, and the one-wheeled variety. was predicted more than 2,000 years ago. See Ezekiel i,

"My dear," said a rural wife to her husband, on his return from town, "what was the sweetest thing you saw in bonnets in the city !" "The ladies' faces, my

Dr. Canneau has ordered the Prince Imperial to quit velocipede riding. He says the Prince is too deli cate for that kind of exercise. The Prince is a passionate velocipedist. Velocipede races are quite a feature of the Parisian racing meetings this year. The hightest rate of speed that has been reached on any of the courses therehas been a mile in 2:14. The wealthiest nobleman in England, the Marquis of Westminster, is said to have softening of the brain. He is 70 years old, and is considered to be in a very precarious condition. An old Brahmin widow burned herself with her husband's corpse some time since in India, and the English Governor has sent all the men engaged in the "suttee" to prison for seven years. Gen. N. B. Forrest has given away the stock which he had in the Memphis Association Course, and says that for the future he does not propose to take any part in matters belonging to the turf. During a severe gale at Glasgow Feb. 14, a chimney, 80 feet, high, fell to the ground, completely burying a bouse and killing five women, a man and two children who were in bed at the time. The Methodist Church of San Jose, Califorma, was burned recently, after the paster had received a letter threatening it, because he taught Chinese with a view to their conversion to Christianity.

At the present time, in Paris, the cafés are open as if it were late Spring, and the visitors to these establishments sit out on the pavements wearing light overcoats. Violets are seen in profusion. In a Methodist levee at Newport, last Wedneeday evening, the audience were taken by surprise in having presented to them, as a "matrimonial tableau,", a bona fide marriage of a couple by two clergymen, Arsene Housssaye says that the French women of the present day are by far ugiler than their female ancestors thirty years ago, and he predicts that in less than thirty years beautiful women will be extremely rare in France. It is feared, in Paris, that Madame Rossini will not long survive her illustrious husband. Since his death she is subject to fainting fits, and the physicians say that one of these attacks will put an end to her life at no Chinese ruffians in San Francisco have a sort of mutual insurance society, by which one who is infired in any scheme of murder or plunder receives a weekly allowance, and in case he goes to prison his famfly is provided for. The library of the Rev. Henry Giles, con-certaing which much interest has been evinced owing to the poverty of the owner, was sold at auction in Boston last week. The attendance was good, and the prices brought unusually high for the class of books. The library, although containing many standard works, had nothing rare or specially choice. About $1,000 was realized by the sale.

at 1312, 1314, 1312, 1312, closing at 1312. The clearings at the Gold Exchange Bank were $113,171,600, and the balance $1,551,392 86. The imports of specie for the week were $75,815; previously reported, $2,021,640; total since Jan. 1, 1869, $2,097,452, same time, 1868, $599,929, same time, 1867. $292,439. Government Bonds opened steady but declined from 131 per cent on the quotations from London, which were 2 per cent lower than on Saturday. At the Second Board prices rallied to the opening rates, and there was a heavy demand for all classes. 62s sold at 1184, 658, 1168, 678, 1122. At the close the market was steady, and there was a good demand for bonds, at our quotations.

There was a moderate demand for the active shores, and at the Regular Board the market was firm. After the Board prices improved, and at the 10'clock Board the market was strong. Now York Central sold at 1603; Hudson, 137; Reading, 918; Michigan Southern, 908; Rock Island, 1218; North-Western Common, 818; North-Western Preferred, 907; Fort Wayne, 118; St. Paul Preferred, 78. At the last Board the general market was steady. New-York Central was strong at 1603, and Michigan Southern at 364. The market has been strong throughout the day, but lacks speculative spirit. New-York Central was purchased largely, and Michigan Southern was in delay in the selection of a Secretary of the Treasury, free on application. and the disturbance caused by the new rule in certifying checks, had a tendency to restrict operations. Rock Island sold at 129.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY'S BONDS are a first mortgage upon one of the longest lines of railroad in the world. The amount will be less than $27,000 per mile. The earnings from local business over a portion of the road last year were over five million dollars, and after its completion, early this season, the immense through traffic of the Pacific States will increase this sum to fifteen or twenty millions. The payment of both interest and principal of the bonds in gold is, therefore, perfectly sure. The present high price of Governments offers . favorable opportunity to sell and to reinvest in a bond equally safe and more valuable on account of the longer period before its maturity. The exchange will now pay a profit of from ten to eighteen per cent. As the issue of these bonds will soon cease, parties who desire to invest are invited to make their subscriptions at once. They will be received at the Company's office, No. 20 Nassau-st.; and by John J. Cisco active demand for the election purposes. The strength of these stocks gave a firm tone to the whole market. Some Patersop, Newark, Hoboken, and a few New-York butchers visited the far-off West-End yards, and bought most of the stock on sale there, generally at moderate or low prices. When the street cars commence running from Chambers-st. ferry, that place will be more approachable. Now they are inconvenient and very muddy. Very few buyers were at One-hundredth-st. this morning, and there was scarcely any trade there, a butcher not being able to divide himself into three parts.

ing, and there was scarcely any trade there, a butcher not being able to divide himself into three parts.

For the first time this season, we have a few still fed cattle. It is understood that the numbers feeding at the distilleries are not large, but it is the season of the year when they usually begin to come forward, so as to be through with before hot weather. There is considerable inquiry for well matched pairs of working oxen, but they are generally sold by the pound, either estimated or on the scales, at about the rates similar animals bring for boer! It some instances a little is added, from the fact that they are well broken to the yoke, and matched in size, color, &c. Butchers have supplied themselves with a full stock of beef this week, and if cattle continue to come for ward thus freely, a further decline will follow. Many of the dealers abterpate as low or lower rates next week. The One-Hundredth st. market was a brisk one last Wednesday, and the Lill cattle of that day, many of them very good, were all sold, generally at 162 leige, with quite a number of the tops at 17.2174c.
